

Addition and Subtraction problems

Read through each problem. Underline the key words and numbers, then write the correct number sentence and solve it.

There are 22 aliens on the spaceship. 5 more drop by. How many are there altogether?
There are 25 aliens on the ship. 4 aliens leave. How many are left?
There are 19 aliens in the ship. They pick up 5 more aliens. How many are on the ship now?
There are 21 rockets on the planet. 4 rockets fly away. How many are there left?
There are 23 rockets on the planet. 5 fly away. How many are left?
There are 18 rockets on the planet. 6 more join them. How many are there now?
There were 12 aliens. 2 aliens left. Then 4 new aliens came. How many aliens are there now?
There were 22 rockets. 3 blew up. They made 2 new rockets. How many are there now? 	