

Autumn Term

Pyjama Day - L

BookTrust getting children reading, gave each child a book pack. So, to encourage and promote reading we had a pyjama day. Where we shared stories together and talked about our favourite stories. At the end of the session all the children took their book pack home. We used the sensory room to pretend we were going to bed and having a bedtime story, we set up beds with blankets and touches.