

In Reception, we celebrated Black History month by looking at the book "Handa Surprise". We used our senses to explore the fruits. We listened to African music and played African instruments. We looked at the artist 'Alma Thomas' and used different media to create the art.