Year 2 - Black History Month

Aster Class were inspired by the work of the American artist Alma Thomas. Aster class used abstract mosaic-style to create some patterned pictures.Alma Woodsey Thomas (1891-1978) was an African American abstract painter and educator who became a central figure of the Washington Color School.

